5                             ing more than 2,000 law enforcement officers who 6                             sustained injuries exemplify the patriotism and the 7                             commitment of police officers, and those of other law 8                             enforcement agencies, to risk their lives in service of 9                             our country.

10                            (4) At least 25 Americans died following the 11                             violent riots, and more than 2,000 law enforcement 12                             officers suffered physical injuries.

13                            (5) The desecration of American cities including 14                             the destruction of over 700 buildings in Minneapolis 15                             alone, over 2,385 incidents of looting, the arrest of 16                             16,200 for riot-related crimes, and the millions of
